By using the Managed.com website, you consent to the data practices described in this Privacy Policy.

What this Privacy Policy covers

This policy covers the information Managed.com collects and how we use it. It also outlines the steps Managed.com takes to protect that information, how to contact us, and how we comply with relevant data protection regulations such as the GDPR.

Under the GDPR, Managed.com is a data controller for the information we collect from you. In certain cases, we are also a data processor for data collected by our clients; for more information on client-collected data, please see “Information collected by our customers” below.

What information we collect

We collect information from you in order to deliver services that you purchase and to monitor and improve the customer experience on our website. The data collected may include your name, email address, postal address, telephone number(s), billing information such as credit card numbers, and answers to security questions that help us to verify your identity and secure your account. It may also include marketing preferences, survey and contest responses, and information you provide through online chats, telephone calls, and support tickets with us. Managed.com services are intended for business use, and Managed.com does not knowingly market to or collect personal information from people under the age of 18.

Managed.com services are intended for business use, and Managed.com does not knowingly market to or collect personal information from people under the age of 18.

How we collect information

Managed.com collects personally identifiable information in a variety of ways, including but not limited to: online order forms, online chats, telephone calls, market research surveys, and customer support tickets.

Certain information about your computer hardware and software may also be automatically collected through tools such as Google Analytics. This information can include your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times, and referring website addresses.

Managed.com may also collect information from third parties as required in order to provide you with products and services.

Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data through Managed.com's blog or social media pages, this information may be collected and used by others.

How we use your information

Provision of Services

Managed.com collects and uses your personal information to operate the Managed.com website, to deliver the services you have requested, and to inform you of other products or services available from Managed.com and its affiliates. This includes sharing your information with trusted third parties, as explained below. We DO NOT sell any of your personal information.

If you elect use a service that provides you the ability to import your personal contacts or related information (i.e. OnePlan Connect), Managed.com will not use this information for commercial purposes except to provide that service.

Third-Party Services

Managed.com offers certain products and services in conjunction with or through trusted partners, sponsors, and affiliates ("Third-Party Services"). These services may be available for an additional fee, or they may be included for free or as a portion of a larger bundle of services. For payments or other monetary transactions, Managed.com must share your personal information (specifically your billing information) with our payment processor. In all cases, we share only information that is required to set up and operate these services. Third-Parties are not permitted to use, keep, or share your data except for the specific services they have been contracted to provide.

Business Continuity

Should Managed.com become part of a merger, acquisition, corporate reorganization, or any other change of control, your personal information will be included in Managed.com's sale of business assets. This means that it could be shared with Managed.com's new owners, or with a new business that Managed.com acquires. If this happens, Managed.com will make reasonable efforts to notify you and inform you of any choices you may have about the information you shared with us.

However, no data transmission over the Internet or wireless network can be guaranteed 100% secure. While we strive to protect your personal information, there are security and privacy limitations of the Internet which are beyond our control. Information and data may be viewed or tampered with in transit by a third party, despite best efforts.

How we retain your information

Managed.com will retain your personal information for as long as your Managed.com services are active. Once your last service has been cancelled, Managed.com will:

- Retain certain information stored in other systems for up to 7 years for potential auditing purposes and to enable us to maintain accurate business, tax, and financial records.

Managed.com may retain personal information longer in order to comply with specific legal requests or obligations. When personal information is no longer required, we will ensure it is deleted.

How we transfer your information

If you visit Managed.com or its websites from a country other than the country in which our servers are located, your communications with Managed.com may result in the transfer of information across international borders. This may also happen if you telephone us or start an online chat. In all cases, your information will be handled under the terms of this Privacy Policy.

How to change your information

You may request access to review, update, and correct any inaccuracies in your personal information by contacting our Data Protection Officer by emailing us at support@managed.com. We may ask you to provide personal information in the form of answers to security questions in order to verify your request.

You can also access and update much of your personal information through the Managed.com Dashboard in the My Profile section. Please ensure you always keep your contact and billing information current with us.

You also have the right to request that we delete your personal data. We will honor the request to the extent possible under our legal and contractual obligations. Please keep in mind that deleting your data may stop your Managed.com services from working properly or at all.

How we use cookies

Managed.com uses “cookies” to help personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize Managed.com pages, or register with a Managed.com site or service, a cookie helps Managed.com recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same Managed.com website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the Managed.com features that you customized.

Some cookies are necessary for Managed.com sites to work properly, such as the cookies which indicate you’ve successfully logged into your account. Some cookies, like the ones used by Google Analytics, help us see how visitors use our sites. Others are used to customize your advertising experience. If you visit a Managed.com website with a browser that has cookies enabled, you are letting us know that you agree to us using cookies with your browser.

You can modify your browser settings to delete or block cookies. You will need to see the “Help” section of your browser for instructions on how to do this. You could also install plugins that block or manage cookies. If you do decide to limit your browser’s ability to use cookies, please remember that Managed.com sites may not function properly.

Information collected by our customers

Managed.com customers may collect data from people who visit their sites, regardless of whether a purchase is made. Managed.com customers are responsible for ensuring they are complying with all legal and privacy regulations, including but not limited to the European GDPR.

Managed.com does not have a direct relationship with our customers’ visitors or users.

If you would like to make any requests regarding personal information that has been collected by a Managed.com customer, please contact them directly. This applies to any kind of request, whether to access, correct, amend, or delete information. If the customer asks Managed.com to remove any personal information we will respond within thirty (30) days.

Links to Third-Party Sites

You may be able to access other websites that have links on Managed.com websites, where you can purchase products and services or register to receive materials or new product updates. In many of these cases, you will be asked to provide personal information such as your name, email address, or other contact information, or credit/billing information. If you complete an order or provide personal information to a website or service that is not provided by Managed.com, Managed.com has no control over the third party’s use of any personal information. Managed.com therefore has no responsibility or liability for the manner in which the organizations that operate such linked websites may collect, use, disclose, secure, or otherwise deal with your personal information. Managed.com provides these links to other websites as a convenience to you. Please exercise care when visiting linked websites, which will have separate and independent privacy policies.

Social Sign-in

We provide you with the ability to log in to your account using social media services such as Facebook, Google+, or Twitter. If you choose to use this feature, the service you select will prompt you for your consent to share some personal information. We will store that information in order to give you access to your account.

If you no longer want to use social sign-in, you can disable it in the My Profile section of the Managed.com Dashboard.

The GDPR regulates how organizations use and treat the personal data of individuals residing in the EU. Ultimately, the GDPR gives individuals residing in the EU (“data subjects”) certain additional rights over how their personal data is collected, processed, retained, and transferred.

The Privacy Compliance team at Managed.com is responsible for GDPR compliance initiatives across the GDPR impacted products/services and works on an on-going basis with a team of stakeholders across Managed.com to continue to assess and advance GDPR compliance. Some of the Frequently Asked Questions we have been receiving from our customers and business partners include the following:

Managed.com Personal Data

Does Managed.com transfer personal data outside the European Union?

- In general, EU personal data is transferred outside the EU. Managed.com meets its GDPR data transfer obligations through intracompany data transfer agreements following model clauses; and in some circumstances, EU personal data remains in the EU either through a data center.

Managed.com Record Keeping

Does Managed.com keep records of its data processing activities?

- Managed.com keeps records of its data processing activities and has completed data inventory audits and mapping of required services and products. As acquisitions occur, an analysis is conducted on any new acquisition and a plan is formed to meet GDPR requirements.

Managed.com Compliance with the GDPR

Does Managed.com require Sub-Processors (Vendors) to comply with the GDPR?

- Sub-Processors processing EU personal data on behalf of Managed.com have been identified and are required to sign a GDPR-compliant Controller-Processor Terms Addendum.

Managed.com Customer Data

Does Managed.com have the ability to delete customer data upon request?

- When Managed.com acts as a Data Processor (meaning, solely processing the data in connection with your directions), Managed.com abides by the direction provided from you, the Data Controller (meaning, the organization controlling the purpose and means of the data collection and processing) provided there are no legitimate interests requiring Managed.com to maintain the personal data.
- When Managed.com acts as a Data Controller, Managed.com deletes data in accordance with GDPR requirements provided there are no legitimate interests requiring Managed.com to maintain the personal data.
- It is important that all customers and business partners understand that the GDPR also places obligations directly upon them when they use our webhosting, email marketing, and logo services in connection with their businesses either located in the EU or directed at EU residents.
- Each customer and business partner are responsible for ensuring their own compliance with the GDPR, just as they are responsible for compliance with all the laws that apply to them today. Accordingly, you should seek appropriate legal guidance to understand your specific obligations under the GDPR.

Cookies

A cookie is a small text file which is placed onto your device (e.g. computer, smartphone or other electronic device) when you use our website. We use cookies on our website. These help us recognize you and your device and store some information about your preferences or past actions. This information helps us to build a profile of our users, improve your shopping experience, administer the site, track users' movements around the site, analyze trends and helps us improve site design. We do not store sensitive information in your cookies. Some of this data will be aggregated or statistical, which means that we will not be able to identify you individually.

You agree to indemnify and hold Managed.com and its subsidiaries and affiliates and its and their officers, directors, employees, partners and agents, harmless from any claim or demand, including reasonable attorneys' fees, made by any third party due to or arising out of our use of User Content.

10. Purchases of Products and/or Services; Transfer of Title

For any Product or Service that is to be provided to you in an electronic format, delivery shall be deemed to have occurred either (a) at the time we transmit the Product via email or other electronic communication addressed to you, or (b) at the time we transmit a notification to you that the Product is available for downloading from the Site. Submission of an online order, verbal acknowledgment on recorded line and/or your signature on our Order Acknowledgment is a conditional acceptance by Managed.com of your offer to purchase our goods and your acceptance of our terms and conditions. It may contain terms that differ from or add to those contained in your purchase order, should you have one, and to the extent that this is the case, Managed.com hereby expressly conditions its acceptance of your offer on Managed.com’s agreement of the additional or different terms. Your receipt and retention of the goods covered by this invoice shall constitute acceptance of any such additional or different terms.

Trial Offers

Some of our Products and Services are offered on a free or limited trial basis. Unless otherwise stated, limit one free or limited trial offer per person or entity during any one-year period. If you do not cancel your trial subscription during the offer period, we will charge the credit card you provided during the registration process the applicable monthly subscription fee.

11. Fees and Payments

You agree to pay any and all fees and payments due for Products or Services purchased at this Site at the time they are ordered. All fees and payments are non-refundable unless otherwise expressly noted, even if your Services are suspended, terminated, or transferred prior to the end of the Services term.

Unless otherwise stated, you may pay for Products and Services by providing a valid credit card or ACH if available. You acknowledge and agree that it is your sole responsibility to modify and maintain Your Account settings, including but not limited to (i) setting your renewal options and (ii) ensuring that your credit card or ACH information is current and valid. Failure to do so may result in the interruption or loss of Services. Managed.com will not be liable to you or any third party regarding Services loss or interruptions. You must notify us of any billing problems or discrepancies within fifteen (15) days after they first appear on your credit card or bank account statement, otherwise you waive any right to dispute any such discrepancy.

You acknowledge that Managed.com may use the services of a third party to automatically update your credit card expiration date. These recurring billing or account updating programs "Billing Programs" are supported by your credit card provider (and are ultimately dependent on your bank's participation). If you are enrolled in an automatic renewal option and we are unable to successfully charge your existing payment method, your credit card provider (or your bank) may notify us of updates to your credit card number and/or expiration date, or they may automatically charge your new credit card on our behalf without notification to us.

If we are unable to charge your credit card or bank account for the full amount owed for the Products or Services provided or if we incur a chargeback for any fee we previously charged to your credit card, you acknowledge that Managed.com may pursue all available lawful remedies in order to obtain payment including, immediate cancellation without notice to you of any domain names or Services registered or renewed on your behalf.

Managed.com reserves the right to charge you reasonable additional fees for, e.g. (i) service upgrades (one-time non-recurring charge) to be invoiced to you in the following billing cycle, (ii) tasks we may perform for you that are outside the normal scope of our Services, (iii) additional time and/or costs we may incur in providing our Products and Services to you, and/or (iv) your noncompliance with this Agreement as determined by us in our sole discretion. These additional fees will be billed to the credit card or other payment method you have on file with us.

Some of Managed.com's Services offer an automatic renewal option that will automatically renew your service for a renewal period equal in time to the original service period. For example, if your original service period is for one year, your renewal period will be for one year. While the details of the automatic renewal option vary from Service to Service, the Services that offer an automatic renewal option treat it as the default setting. Therefore, unless you cancel prior to the automatic renewal, Managed.com will automatically renew the applicable service when it comes up for renewal and will take payment from the payment method you have on file with us. Renewal fees will be charged at Managed.com's then-current rates.

Managed.com expressly reserves the right to change or modify its prices and fees at any time, and such changes or modifications will be posted online at this Site or otherwise communicated to you using the information on file with us, and effective immediately without further notice to you. If you have purchased Products or Services for a fixed time period, changes or modifications in prices and fees will be effective when the Product or Service in question comes up for renewal. If you find any pricing change unacceptable, you may cancel your Service subscription(s) and terminate your Customer Account, however Managed.com will not be obligated to refund any remaining portion of your pre-paid fees.

If a Service is offered with a special promotion price or period offered by us, you agree that all subsequent periods after the initial promotion period will be billed at the then stated list price for the service. If a Service is offered with a special promotion price and you cancel and/or default on payment causing suspension or termination of service you are not eligible to resume service at that original promotion price and regular pricing applies.

Late Fees and Penalties. We reserve the right to charge late fees of 1% per month (18%, annually) or 6% of the amount due plus $10 per month for amounts not timely paid, whichever is more. Customer will be responsible for all reasonable expenses (including collection and reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by us in collecting such amounts.

13. Term and Termination

The term and termination provisions of this Agreement and any applicable Services terms of use vary according to the Services selected by you when ordering and will be presented to you during the Services selection and ordering process. Managed.com reserves the right in its sole discretion to immediately terminate the Service for reasonable cause, including but limited to: (i) non-payment to us; (ii) failure to meet our credit requirements; (iii) non-compliance with any of the provisions of this Agreement or any Services terms of use; (iv) requests by law enforcement or other government agencies; (v) our ceasing to offer the Service; (vi) our inability to verify or authenticate any information you provide to us; or (vii) our conclusion, in our sole discretion, that your use of or access to the Service may result in liability to us. In the event of default by you, any and all payments required to be made to us by you shall be due and payable immediately. Termination of this Agreement shall not relieve you from any liability, including amounts owing, accrued prior to the time that such termination becomes effective.

14. No-risk guarantee

Your products are our priority; Managed.com works hard to make sure you get them on time, just the way you ordered them. You have expectations. To meet them, we are happy to refund (in accordance to our return policy below) or reprint your merchandise if it's different than the proof you approved.

Managed.com strives to make running a business or planning an event easier for you by having your back. We want to make sure you're happy with your purchase because we want you to be as thrilled to choose us as we are to have you as a customer.

Please note: To issue a refund or reprint, we may need to arrange a pickup of your damaged or defective order. To make this a smooth process, you might be asked to show documentation. We're happy to assist you, so before you toss out or return your purchase, give us a call so we can find a solution.

One thing we'd like you to keep in mind is that all sales, unless otherwise noted, are final. Managed.com puts special care into working on your job and will not be able to give a refund once we've gotten the materials and begun working.

Life is unpredictable, and some circumstances are beyond our control. We cannot be held responsible for:

- Spelling, punctuation or grammatical errors made during your customization process
- Poor image quality or low-resolution of your uploaded files
- Design or color selection errors you submitted during the file creation process
- Errors in user-selected options like product type, size, finishing options or quantity
- Incorrect dimensions, image orientation or file submission in accordance with our specifications
- Color-match guarantee without a hard-copy proof approval
- Delivery delays due to improperly prepared files
- Duplicate orders by the customer
- Incorrect file layout for folding, scoring, hole drilling, die cutting or other custom services

Don't let this list overwhelm you. We've got steps in place all along the process to help prevent these errors from happening.

Claims and returns

If problems arise, please reach out to us within 15 days of receiving your package. A good way to meet this time frame is to open your order right away, even if you don't plan on using it for a while. After 15 days, it may not be possible to go back to our suppliers for credit. Having your order number available when contacting us will make finding a solution simpler on both ends. Unauthorized returns are not accepted. Customer service is always here to help and, if need be, we'll give you a Return Material Authorization number (RMA) and a special shipping address to send your package on a journey back to us.

Domain Name Renewal & Redemption Policy

Purpose, Acceptance of Terms.

This Domain Name Renewal and Redemption Policy applies to users of Managed.com's domain name registration Services. Managed.com's Universal Terms of Use, Domain Name Service Agreement, and any applicable purchase order terms are incorporated herein by reference. Unless otherwise stated, capitalized terms used herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the Universal Terms of Use, Domain Name Service Agreement and purchase order, if any.

2. Auto-Renewal Policy.

Registration Service Provider provides an auto-renewal option for each registered domain name. Each domain name owner can control the auto-renewal option for their domain(s) within the control panel. The auto-renewal service has two options:

Auto-Renew ON: The domain name(s) will be automatically renewed by the Registrar on the expiry date; the auto-renewal term is set to 1 year when enabled and can be viewed or changed in your Managed.com.com Control Panel. Your domain(s) will be renewed using your current method of payment. Renewal payment is taken 30 days prior to the expiry of the domain, to ensure ample time for successful payment. You are responsible for ensuring that renewal fees are processed on time.

Auto-Renew OFF: The domain name(s) will not be automatically renewed. The domain name owner must explicitly request the renewal of his/her domain name(s) prior to the expiration date.

Please note that auto-renew must be turned on more than 1 day prior to the renewal date in order to take effect.

Registration Service Provider will send email notifications to you for expiring domains regardless of the auto-renewal option status:

Auto-Renew ON: Reminders will be sent at 45, 30, and 5 days prior to your domain's expiration date and then 5 and 15 days after expiration if the domain is not renewed. The notification is sent to the email address provided as the Registered Name Holder point of contact in your Registration Service Provider account, and will contain the domain name and expiration date.

Auto-Renew OFF: Renewal notices are sent 45, 30, 15, and 5 days prior to the domain's expiration date, and then 5 and 15 days after expiration if the domain is not renewed. The notification is sent to the Registered Name Holder email address provided as the point of contact in your Registration Service Provider account, and will contain the domain name and expiration date, as well as renewal instructions.

3. Expired Domains Deletion Policy.

For the first 30 days after your domain name's expiration date the domain is considered to be in a "Renewal Grace Period" status. During this time the WHOIS information will be masked and will not display the original Registrant's information unless the domain is renewed. During the Renewal Grace Period, the domain can only be renewed by the original owner. The cost for renewal during the Renewal Grace Period is the same as for a standard domain renewal. During the Renewal Grace Period the Registrar will change the nameservers to ns1.renewyourname.aplus.net and ns2.renewyourname.aplus.net to indicate that your domain name has expired with instructions for renewing your domain name. If your domain name is currently expired, you may log into your domain name control panel and renew your domain name or you may contact one of our Domain Services Representatives to assist you. Domain Services Representatives can be reached from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm EST 7 days a week at 1-877-743-8366.

If you do not renew your domain name during the Renewal Grace Period your domain name will be made available to other parties for purchase. During the Renewal Grace Period, Managed.com may direct your domain name to an IP address designated by us, including, without limitation, to an IP address which hosts a parking, under construction, or other page that may include promotions and advertisements for, and links to, any of Managed.com's Websites or third-party Websites including Internet search engines. After the Renewal Grace Period ends, you may contact one of our Domain Services Representatives, from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm EST 7 days a week at 1-877-743-8366 to inquire about repurchasing the expired domain name.

If the domain status changes to redemption status, the original domain owner has the option to renew the domain for a redemption fee plus the cost of the domain renewal. If your domain name is currently in redemption status, we ask that you contact one of our Domain Services Representatives immediately at support@managed.com to help you renew the domain. Domain Services can be reached from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm Eastern seven days a week at 1-877-743-8366

4. Pending Delete Status.

Following the Renewal Grace Period the Registry places the expired domain into "Pending Delete Status" for approximately five (5) days. During the Pending Delete Status your expired domain name cannot be retrieved by the Registration Service Provider and redeemed. Following the Pending Delete Status period, your expired domain is then released from the Registry and made available to the general public for registration.

Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (UDRP)

Managed.com's Universal Terms of Use, Domain Name Service Agreement and any applicable purchase order terms are incorporated herein by reference. Unless otherwise stated, capitalized terms used herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the Universal Terms of Use, Domain Name Service Agreement and purchase order, if any.

(As Approved by ICANN on October 24, 1999)

1. Purpose. This Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (the "Policy") has been adopted by the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers ("ICANN"), is incorporated by reference into your Registration Agreement, and sets forth the terms and conditions in connection with a dispute between you and any party other than us (the registrar) over the registration and use of an Internet domain name registered by you. Proceedings under Paragraph 4 of this Policy will be conducted according to the Rules for Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (the "Rules of Procedure"), which are available at <https://www.icann.org/resources/pages/udrp-rules-2015-03-11-en>, and the selected administrative-dispute-resolution service provider's supplemental rules.

2. Your Representations. By applying to register a domain name, or by asking us to maintain or renew a domain name registration, you hereby represent and warrant to us that (a) the statements that you made in your Registration Agreement are complete and accurate; (b) to your knowledge, the registration of the domain name will not infringe upon or otherwise violate the rights of any third party; (c) you are not registering the domain name for an unlawful purpose; and (d) you will not knowingly use the domain name in violation of any applicable laws or regulations. It is your responsibility to determine whether your domain name registration infringes or violates someone else's rights.

3. Cancellations, Transfers, and Changes. We will cancel, transfer or otherwise make changes to domain name registrations under the following circumstances:

a. subject to the provisions of Paragraph 8, our receipt of written or appropriate electronic instructions from you or your authorized agent to take such action;

b. our receipt of an order from a court or arbitral tribunal, in each case of competent jurisdiction, requiring such action; and/or

c. our receipt of a decision of an Administrative Panel requiring such action in any administrative proceeding to which you were a party and which was conducted under this Policy or a later version of this Policy adopted by ICANN. (See Paragraph 4\(i\) and \(k\) below.)

We may also cancel, transfer or otherwise make changes to a domain name registration in accordance with the terms of your Registration Agreement or other legal requirements.

4. Mandatory Administrative Proceeding.

This Paragraph sets forth the type of disputes for which you are required to submit to a mandatory administrative proceeding. These proceedings will be conducted before one of the administrative-dispute-resolution service providers listed at www.icann.org/en/dndr/udrp/approved-providers.htm (each, a "Provider").

a. Applicable Disputes. You are required to submit to a mandatory administrative proceeding in the event that a third party (a "complainant") asserts to the applicable Provider, in compliance with the Rules of Procedure, that

(i) your domain name is identical or confusingly similar to a trademark or service mark in which the complainant has rights; and

(ii) you have no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the domain name; and

(iii) your domain name has been registered and is being used in bad faith.

In the administrative proceeding, the complainant must prove that each of these three elements are present.

b. Evidence of Registration and Use in Bad Faith. For the purposes of Paragraph 4\(a\)\(iii\), the following circumstances, in particular but without limitation, if found by the Panel to be present, shall be evidence of the registration and use of a domain name in bad faith:

(i) circumstances indicating that you have registered or you have acquired the domain name primarily for the purpose of selling, renting, or otherwise transferring the domain name registration to the complainant who is the owner of the trademark or service mark or to a competitor of that complainant, for valuable consideration in excess of your documented out-of-pocket costs directly related to the domain name; or

(ii) you have registered the domain name in order to prevent the owner of the trademark or service mark from reflecting the mark in a corresponding domain name, provided that you have engaged in a pattern of such conduct; or

(iii) you have registered the domain name primarily for the purpose of disrupting the business of a competitor; or

(iv) by using the domain name, you have intentionally attempted to attract, for commercial gain, Internet users to your web site or other on-line location, by creating a likelihood of confusion with the complainant's mark as to the source, sponsorship, affiliation, or endorsement of your web site or location or of a product or service on your web site or location.

c. How to Demonstrate Your Rights to and Legitimate Interests in the Domain Name in Responding to a Complaint. When you receive a complaint, you should refer to Paragraph 5 of the Rules of Procedure in determining how your response should be prepared. Any of the following circumstances, in particular but without limitation, if found by the Panel to be proved based on its evaluation of all evidence presented, shall demonstrate your rights or legitimate interests to the domain name for purposes of Paragraph 4\(a\)\(ii\):

(i) before any notice to you of the dispute, your use of, or demonstrable preparations to use, the domain name or a name corresponding to the domain name in connection with a bona fide offering of goods or services; or

(ii) you (as an individual, business, or other organization) have been commonly known by the domain name, even if you have acquired no trademark or service mark rights; or

(iii) you are making a legitimate noncommercial or fair use of the domain name, without intent for commercial gain to misleadingly divert consumers or to tarnish the trademark or service mark at issue.

d. Selection of Provider. The complainant shall select the Provider from among those approved by ICANN by submitting the complaint to that Provider. The selected Provider will administer the proceeding, except in cases of consolidation as described in Paragraph 4\(f\).

e. Initiation of Proceeding and Process and Appointment of Administrative Panel. The Rules of Procedure state the process for initiating and conducting a proceeding and for appointing the panel that will decide the dispute (the "Administrative Panel").

f. Consolidation. In the event of multiple disputes between you and a complainant, either you or the complainant may petition to consolidate the disputes before a single Administrative Panel. This petition shall be made to the first Administrative Panel appointed to hear a pending dispute between the parties. This Administrative Panel may consolidate before it any or all such disputes in its sole discretion, provided that the disputes being consolidated are governed by this Policy or a later version of this Policy adopted by ICANN.

g. Fees. All fees charged by a Provider in connection with any dispute before an Administrative Panel pursuant to this Policy shall be paid by the complainant, except in cases where you elect to expand the Administrative Panel from one to three panelists as provided in Paragraph 5\(b\)\(iv\) of the Rules of Procedure, in which case all fees will be split evenly by you and the complainant.

h. Our Involvement in Administrative Proceedings. We do not, and will not, participate in the administration or conduct of any proceeding before an Administrative Panel. In addition, we will not be liable as a result of any decisions rendered by the Administrative Panel.

i. Remedies. The remedies available to a complainant pursuant to any proceeding before an Administrative Panel shall be limited to requiring the cancellation of your domain name or the transfer of your domain name registration to the complainant.

j. Notification and Publication. The Provider shall notify us of any decision made by an Administrative Panel with respect to a domain name you have registered with us. All decisions under this Policy will be published in full over the Internet, except when an Administrative Panel determines in an exceptional case to redact portions of its decision.

k. Availability of Court Proceedings. The mandatory administrative proceeding requirements set forth in Paragraph 4 shall not prevent either you or the complainant from submitting the dispute to a court of competent jurisdiction for independent resolution before such mandatory administrative proceeding is commenced or after such proceeding is concluded. If an Administrative Panel decides that your domain name registration should be canceled or transferred, we will wait ten (10) business days (as observed in the location of our principal office) after we are informed by the applicable Provider of the Administrative Panel's decision before implementing that decision. We will then implement the decision unless we have received from you during that ten (10) business day period official documentation (such as a copy of a complaint, file-stamped by the clerk of the court) that you have commenced a lawsuit against the complainant in a jurisdiction to which the complainant has submitted under Paragraph 3\(b\)\(xiii\) of the Rules of Procedure. (In general, that jurisdiction is either the location of our principal office or of your address as shown in our Whois database. See Paragraphs 1 and 3\(b\)\(xiii\) of the Rules of Procedure for details.) If we receive such documentation within the ten (10) business day period, we will not implement the Administrative Panel's decision, and we will take no further action, until we receive (i) evidence satisfactory to us of a resolution between the parties; (ii) evidence satisfactory to us that your lawsuit has been dismissed or withdrawn; or (iii) a copy of an order from such court dismissing your lawsuit or ordering that you do not have the right to continue to use your domain name.

5. All Other Disputes and Litigation. All other disputes between you and any party other than us regarding your domain name registration that are not brought pursuant to the mandatory administrative proceeding provisions of Paragraph 4 shall be resolved between you and such other party through any court, arbitration or other proceeding that may be available.

6. Our Involvement in Disputes. We will not participate in any way in any dispute between you and any party other than us regarding the registration and use of your domain name. You shall not name us as a party or otherwise include us in any such proceeding. In the event that we are named as a party in any such proceeding, we reserve the right to raise any and all defenses deemed appropriate, and to take any other action necessary to defend ourselves.

7. Maintaining the Status Quo. We will not cancel, transfer, activate, deactivate, or otherwise change the status of any domain name registration under this Policy except as provided in Paragraph 3 above.

8. Transfers During a Dispute.

a. Transfers of a Domain Name to a New Holder. You may not transfer your domain name registration to another holder (i) during a pending administrative proceeding brought pursuant to Paragraph 4 or for a period of fifteen (15) business days (as observed in the location of our principal place of business) after such proceeding is concluded; or (ii) during a pending court proceeding or arbitration commenced regarding your domain name unless the party to whom the domain name registration is being transferred agrees, in writing, to be bound by the decision of the court or arbitrator. We reserve the right to cancel any transfer of a domain name registration to another holder that is made in violation of this subparagraph.

b. Changing Registrars. You may not transfer your domain name registration to another registrar during a pending administrative proceeding brought pursuant to Paragraph 4 or for a period of fifteen (15) business days (as observed in the location of our principal place of business) after such proceeding is concluded. You may transfer administration of your domain name registration to another registrar during a pending court action or arbitration, provided that the domain name you have registered with us shall continue to be subject to the proceedings commenced against you in accordance with the terms of this Policy. In the event that you transfer a domain name registration to us during the pendency of a court action or arbitration, such dispute shall remain subject to the domain name dispute policy of the registrar from which the domain name registration was transferred.

9. Policy Modifications. We reserve the right to modify this Policy at any time with the permission of ICANN. We will post our revised Policy at <https://www.managed.com> at least thirty (30) calendar days before it becomes effective. Unless this Policy has already been invoked by the submission of a complaint to a Provider, in which event the version of the Policy in effect at the time it was invoked will apply to you until the dispute is over, all such changes will be binding upon you with respect to any domain name registration dispute, whether the dispute arose before, on or after the effective date of our change. In the event that you object to a change in this Policy, your sole remedy is to cancel your domain name registration with us, provided that you will not be entitled to a refund of any fees you paid to us. The revised Policy will apply to you until you cancel your domain name registration

11. Fees and Payments

You agree to pay any and all fees and payments due for the Reviews Promoter service purchased at this Site and/or through a sales consultant at the time they are ordered. All fees and payments due are in U.S. dollars unless otherwise specified and are non-refundable unless otherwise expressly noted, even if your Services are suspended, terminated, or transferred prior to the end of the Services term.

Unless otherwise stated, you may pay for the Reviews Promoter service by providing a valid credit card or ACH if available. Failure to do so may result in the interruption or loss of Services. Managed.com will not be liable to you or any third-party regarding Services loss or interruptions. You must notify us of any billing problems or discrepancies within fifteen (15) days after they first appear on your credit card or bank account statement, otherwise you waive any right to dispute any such discrepancy.

You acknowledge that Managed.com may use the services of a third party to automatically update your credit card expiration date. These recurring billing or account updating programs "Billing Programs" are supported by your credit card provider (and are ultimately dependent on your bank's participation). If you are enrolled in an automatic renewal option and we are unable to successfully charge your existing payment method, your credit card provider (or your bank) may notify us of updates to your credit card number and/or expiration date, or they may automatically charge your new credit card on our behalf without notification to us.

These additional fees will be billed to the credit card or other payment method you have on file with us.

Some of Managed.com's Services offer an automatic renewal option that will automatically renew your service for a renewal period equal in time to the original service period. For example, if your original service period is for one year, your renewal period will be for one year. While the details of the automatic renewal option vary from Service to Service, the Services that offer an automatic renewal option treat it as the default setting. Therefore, unless you cancel prior to the automatic renewal, Managed.com will automatically renew the applicable service when it comes up for renewal and will take payment from the payment method you have on file with us. Renewal fees will be charged at Managed.com's then-current rates.

Managed.com expressly reserves the right to change or modify its prices and fees at any time, and such changes or modifications will be posted online at this Site or otherwise communicated to you using the information on file with us, and effective immediately without further notice to you. If you have purchased Products or Services for a fixed time period, changes or modifications in prices and fees will be effective when the Product or Service in question comes up for renewal. If you find any pricing change unacceptable, you may cancel your Service subscription(s) and terminate your Customer Account, however Managed.com will not be obligated to refund any remaining portion of your pre-paid fees.

If a Service is offered with a special promotion price or period offered by us, you agree that all subsequent periods after the initial promotion period will be billed at the then stated list price for the service.

Late Fees and Penalties. We reserve the right to charge late fees of 1% per month (18%, annually) or 6% of the amount due plus $10 per month for amounts not timely paid, whichever is more. This End User License Agreement, together with all other documents and policies referenced herein, is a legal agreement (“Agreement”) between HostPapa, Inc. (“Managed.com,” “we,” or “our”) and the customer purchasing Managed.com's fax-to-email services (the “Services”), together with any company or other business entity you are representing, if any (“you” or “your”).

Managed.com's Universal Terms of Use and Privacy Policy, available at <https://www.managed.com> and the documents and policies referred to herein are incorporated by reference into and made a part of this Agreement, unless they are expressly modified below. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, YOU CANNOT PURCHASE OR USE THE SERVICES.

The Services are offered to you conditioned upon your acceptance without modification of this Agreement. Managed.com may update or change, augment or enhance this Agreement or the Services without notice to you. By signing up for the Services and accepting this Agreement you agree to be bound by these modifications. If you do not agree to the changes your sole and exclusive remedy is to cancel your subscription to the Services.

2. Description of the Fax-to-Email Services and Terms of Use.

The Fax-to-Email Services includes: (i) use of a toll-free telephone number that provides for the delivery of faxes to email in the volumes described below in our Fair Usage Policy; and (ii) outbound faxing from the online Fax Management Interface.

Toll-Free Services Usage.

As a Toll-Free End-User, you will receive a toll-free fax number from which you may receive faxes. You will be charged a monthly usage fee based on the combined number of fax pages sent and received according to your subscribed plan. Our current usage fee is set forth on the website you used to select and purchase the Service. Additional pages both sent and received above your subscribed plan's monthly allotment will be charged per page at the overage rate displayed on our website <https://www.managed.com>. You will have the option to send faxes via the online fax management interface and to subscribe for additional services at <https://www.managed.com> subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement

Storage of Faxes.

While you receive Services, we will store fax messages sent and or received through your Fax-to-Email online interface for a period of 30 days, measured from the date of receipt of each fax. These faxes are accessible through the online Fax Management Interface. You acknowledge that we may change our practices and limitations concerning storage of fax messages, including without limitation, the maximum number of days that faxed messages will be retained, the maximum number of messages stored at any one time, and the maximum storage space that will be allotted on our servers on your behalf, at any time. You further agree that Managed.com has no responsibility or liability whatsoever for the deletion or failure to store any fax messages and/or other communications maintained or transmitted by the Services.

3. Our Privacy Policy.

Managed.com is dedicated to establishing trusting relationships with its customers, based on respect for personal identity and information. If we decide to change our privacy practices, we will post those changes in our Privacy Policy, and other places we deem appropriate, so our customers are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we disclose it. We will use information in accordance with the Privacy Policy under which the information was collected.

4. End-User Responsibilities.

You are fully responsible for the contents of your transmissions through the Services. Managed.com simply acts as a passive conduit for you to send and receive information of your own choosing. However, we reserve the right to take any action with respect to the Services that we deem necessary or appropriate in its sole discretion if we believe you or your information may create liability for Managed.com, compromise or disrupt the Services for you or other customers, or cause us to lose (in whole or in part) the services of our ISPs or other suppliers.

Your use of the Services is subject to all applicable local, state, or national United States laws and international laws and regulations (including without limitation those governing account collection, export control, consumer protection, unfair competition, anti-discrimination and false advertising). You agree: (1) to comply with all laws regarding the transmission of technical data exported from any country through the Services; (2) not to use the Services for illegal purposes; (3) not to interfere or disrupt networks connected to the Services; (4) to comply with all regulations, policies and procedures of networks connected to the Services; (5) not to use the Services to infringe upon any third party's copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret or other proprietary rights or rights of publicity or privacy; and (6) not to transmit through the Services any unlawful, harassing, libelous, abusive, threatening, harmful, vulgar, obscene or otherwise objectionable material of any kind or nature.

You further agree not to transmit any material that encourages conduct that could constitute a criminal offense, give rise to civil liability or otherwise violate any applicable local, state, or Federal United States law or regulation, the applicable laws or regulations of any country, or international law. The Services make use of the Internet for you to send and receive information of your own choosing. As a result, your conduct is subject to Internet regulations, policies and procedures. You agree not use or reference the Services for chain letters, junk fax or junk mail, spamming or any use of distribution lists to any person who has not given specific permission to be included in such a process, and further agree not to attempt to gain unauthorized access to other computer systems. You shall not interfere with another End-User's use and enjoyment of the Services or another entity's use and enjoyment of similar services.

You further agree not to use our services to store (1) any "protected health information" if you are a "covered entity" or a "business associate" of a "covered entity" (as such terms are defined in 45 CFR s. 160.103), or (2) any other type of information that imposes independent obligations upon Managed.com or any affiliated company or person.

You must (a) obtain and pay for all equipment and third-party services (e.g., Internet access and email service) required for you to access and use the Services; (b) be responsible for all charges resulting from use of the Services, including unauthorized use prior to your notifying us of such use and taking steps to prevent its further occurrence.

5. Unsolicited Fax Advertisement/Spam Drop-Box Policy.

Unsolicited Fax Advertisement Policy. The transmission of unsolicited fax advertisements is illegal in the United States under the Federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act and is also illegal under the laws of a number of other countries, states and provinces. Distribution of unsolicited fax advertisements through the Services is prohibited. If you believe that you are in receipt of an unsolicited fax advertisement, we ask that you take the following two steps:

- If the fax contains a telephone number, fax number, or other contact information to "unsubscribe" from receipt of additional junk faxes, please do so; and
- Please forward the spam fax by email to support@managed.com to file a complaint with us by inserting the required information (fax number received from and date received) and including a copy of the offending fax.

You hereby acknowledge and agree that Managed.com, as owner of all Fax-to-Email Numbers, has any and all rights to assert any and all legal claims available against any third party as a result of your receipt of any unsolicited faxes, including but not limited to claims under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, and to the extent you do have any rights to bring any such claims, you hereby assign any and all such rights to us. Because our Fax-to-Email Numbers may be reassigned to other customers in the event your account is canceled, and to ensure the best possible Services for all customers, you are not permitted to "opt in" to receive spam faxes on your Fax-to-Email Number.

Spam Drop-Box Policy. Managed.com does not permit its End-Users to use their Fax-to-Email Number as a "drop box" for responses to email or fax spam offers. If you believe you are in receipt of email or fax spam that uses a Fax-to-Email Number as a "drop-box" for responses, we ask that you take the following steps:

- If the email or fax contains an email address, telephone number, fax number, or other contact information to "unsubscribe" from receipt of additional messages, please do so.
- If you are unable to successfully "unsubscribe," please forward the offending email support@managed.com. We will investigate your complaint and determine if the fax/voicemail number referenced in the spam email or spam fax is a Fax-to-Email Number. If it is, we will attempt to contact the customer and, if necessary and appropriate, terminate their Fax-to-Email Service.

6. Termination.

You may terminate the Services at any time, for any reason, provided that (i) you will not receive a refund for any Services paid in advance, and (ii) any such notice by you to Managed.com must be in accordance with our verification procedures, as such procedures may be established and changed by us from time to time in our sole discretion, and which may include the requirement that you contact us by phone to confirm that any such notice was in fact sent by you. Managed.com also reserves the right to terminate or suspend your Services without prior notice, provided that we will attempt to confirm such termination or suspension by subsequent notice.

7. End-User Representations.

You represent and warrant that you are at least 18 years of age or, as applicable, the age of majority in the state or province in which you reside, and that you possess the legal right and ability to enter into this Agreement. You agree to be financially responsible for your use of the Services (as well as for use of your account by others, including minors living with you) and to comply with your responsibilities and obligations as stated in this Agreement.

8. Modifications to End-User Agreement.

Managed.com may automatically amend this Agreement at any time by (a) posting a revised Fax-to-Email End-User Agreement on its Website, and/or (b) sending information regarding the amendment to the email address you provide to us.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR REGULARLY REVIEWING OUR WEBSITE TO OBTAIN TIMELY NOTICE OF SUCH AMENDMENTS. YOU SHALL BE DEEMED TO HAVE ACCEPTED SUCH AMENDMENTS BY CONTINUING TO USE THE SERVICES AFTER SUCH AMENDMENTS HAVE BEEN POSTED OR INFORMATION REGARDING SUCH AMENDMENTS HAS BEEN SENT TO YOU.

This Agreement may not be amended by you except in writing signed by both Parties.

9. Modifications to the Services.

Managed.com reserves the right to modify or discontinue any of the Services with or without notice to you. We will not be liable to you or any third party should we exercise our right to modify or discontinue the Services.

10. Member Account, PIN, and Security.

As part of the registration process, you will be required to provide an email address and select a password. Once you become a registered user, your Fax-to-Email Number will be automatically sent to you by email and accessed through the Fax-to-Email administrative control panel. Furthermore, you are entirely responsible for any and all activities that occur under your account. You agree to immediately notify us of any unauthorized use of your account or any other breach of security known to you.

11. Disclaimer of Warranties and Limitation of Liability.

Managed.com DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE SERVICES WILL BE FREE OF ERRORS, BE UNINTERRUPTED, OR WILL MEET YOUR REQUIREMENTS. THE SERVICES PROVIDED ARE ON AN AS-IS BASIS AND WE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES, CONDITIONS, AND INDEMNITIES, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OR ANY OTHER WARRANTY ARISING FROM THE COURSE OF PERFORMANCE OR COURSE OF DEALING. YOU UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT WE WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY TEMPORARY DELAY, OUTAGE, OR INTERRUPTION OF THE SERVICES, AND YOU HAVE NOT ENTERED INTO THIS AGREEMENT IN RELIANCE UPON ANY WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION EXCEPT THOSE SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH HEREIN. ALL SERVICES PROVIDED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE DEEMED ACCEPTED WHEN DELIVERED.

YOUR USE OF THE FAX-TO-EMAIL AND ALL OF OUR OTHER SOFTWARE AND SERVICES IS AT YOUR OWN RISK. YOU ASSUME FULL RESPONSIBILITY AND RISK OF LOSS RESULTING FROM YOUR DOWNLOADING AND/OR USE OF FILES OR OTHER MATERIAL (INCLUDING Managed.com'S SOFTWARE) OBTAINED EITHER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY FROM THE FAX-TO-EMAIL SERVICE. YOU AGREE THAT NEITHER Managed.com NOR ANY OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES, AFFILIATES, SHAREHOLDERS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, CONTRACTORS, EMPLOYEES, LICENSORS OR SERVICE PROVIDERS WILL BE LIABLE TO YOU UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES FOR ANY THIRD PARTY, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE, INDIRECT, MULTIPLE, INCIDENTAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY LOSS OF DATA, LOSS OF USE, OR INTERRUPTION OF BUSINESS) ARISING OUT OF, OR IN CONNECTION WITH, THIS AGREEMENT WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, WARRANTY, NEGLIGENCE OR OTHER TORT, BREACH OF ANY STATUTORY DUTY, THE FAILURE OF ANY LIMITED OR EXCLUSIVE REMEDY TO ACHIEVE ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE, STRICT LIABILITY, OR ANY OTHER LEGAL OR EQUITABLE GROUNDS, EVEN IF WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. OUR ENTIRE LIABILITY AND OUR LICENSORS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS AND YOUR EXCLUSIVE REMEDY WITH RESPECT TO THE USE OF THE FAX-TO-EMAIL SERVICES AND ANY OF OUR OTHER SERVICES AND SOFTWARE OR ANY BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT ARE LIMITED TO THE LESSER OF: (I) THE AMOUNT ACTUALLY PAID BY YOU FOR ACCESS TO AND USE OF THE SOFTWARE OR SERVICES IN THE THREE (3) MONTHS PRECEDING THE DATE OF YOUR CLAIM OR (II) U.S. $100.00.

NEITHER Managed.com NOR ANY OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES, AFFILIATES, SHAREHOLDERS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, CONTRACTORS, EMPLOYEES, LICENSORS OR SERVICE PROVIDERS SHALL BE HELD RESPONSIBLE IN ANY WAY OR BY ANY MEANS, EITHER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, FOR ANY COMMUNICATIONS DIFFICULTIES OUTSIDE OF OUR OR ANY SUCH LICENSOR'S OR SERVICE PROVIDER'S CONTROL WHICH COULD LEAD TO THE INTERRUPTION OF DATA DELIVERY SERVICES TO THE CUSTOMER'S EMAIL ADDRESS, PAGER, TELEPHONE OR ANY OTHER RECEIVING DEVICES OR THIRD-PARTY DATA STORAGE AND/OR DELIVERY SERVICES. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED AS CREATING A JOINT VENTURE, PARTNERSHIP, AGENCY, EMPLOYMENT, FRANCHISE, OR OTHER RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN YOU AND Managed.com. ALSO, NEITHER PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL HAVE THE RIGHT, POWER OR AUTHORITY TO CREATE ANY OBLIGATIONS OR DUTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, ON BEHALF OF THE OTHER. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THESE LIMITATIONS ARE AN ESSENTIAL ELEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT AND WITHOUT SUCH LIMITATIONS Managed.com WOULD NOT ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

12. Charges.

You agree to pay all charges for your use of the Services at the prices then in effect for your country of residence. Managed.com reserves the right to charge value-added, sales or other taxes on the Services as it deems appropriate and reserves the right to change prices or institute new charges for access to or use of the Fax-to-Email service. All changes will be posted at our Website and you are responsible for regularly reviewing such pricing information to obtain timely notice of such changes. Continued use of, or non-termination of the Services after changes are posted constitutes your acceptance of the prices as modified by the posted changes.

Payment of your Services balance is due monthly.

Charges are to be paid on a monthly basis in the currency in which you were charged or billed. If your payment method is credit card and payment is not received by us from the card issuer or its agents, you agree to pay all amounts due upon demand by us. Each time you use the Services, or allow or cause the Services to be used, you agree and reaffirm that Managed.com is authorized to charge your designated card. Your card issuer's agreement governs your use of your designated card in connection with the Fax-to-Email service, and you must refer to such agreement (not this Agreement) with respect to your rights and liabilities as a cardholder. You agree that Managed.com may (at its option) accumulate charges incurred during your monthly billing cycle and submit them as one or more aggregate charges during or at the end of each cycle, and that we may delay obtaining authorization from your card issuer until submission of the accumulated charge(s). This means that accumulated charges may appear on the statement you receive from your card issuer.

Your activation fee and monthly service fees are payable in advance and are COMPLETELY NON-REFUNDABLE. You agree that Managed.com may submit charges for your monthly service fee each month, without further authorization from you, until you provide prior written notice (in accordance with our verification procedures, as may be established by us from time to time in its sole discretion) that you have terminated this authorization or wish to change your designated card. Such notice will not affect charges submitted before we reasonably could act on your notice. If you have any question regarding any charges that have been applied to your account, you must contact us within 30 days of the charge date. Failure to use your account will not be deemed a basis for refusing to pay any charges submitted by us in accordance with this Agreement.

You must promptly notify us in writing of changes to: (a) the account number or expiration date of your designated card; (b) your billing address; and (c) the name of each minor whom you have authorized to use your Services. You must also promptly notify us if your card is canceled (e.g., for loss or theft).

13. Payment.

Managed.com reserves the right to suspend or terminate your Services without notice upon rejection of any card charges or if your card issuer (or its agent or affiliate) seeks return of payments previously made to us when we believe you are liable for the charge. Such rights are in addition to and not in lieu of any other legal rights or remedies available.

14. Ownership.

All programs, services, processes, designs, software, technologies, trademarks, trade names, inventions and materials comprising the Services are wholly owned by Managed.com and/or its licensors and service providers except where expressly stated otherwise.

YOU FURTHER UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT YOU ARE NOT THE OWNER OF ANY FAX-TO-EMAIL NUMBER ASSIGNED TO YOU BY Managed.com. OWNERSHIP OF ANY SUCH FAX-TO-EMAIL NUMBER IS VESTED SOLELY IN Managed.com (WHICH WILL ASSIGN SUCH NUMBER TO YOU FOR YOUR USE DURING THE TERM OF THIS AGREEMENT). YOU UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT FOLLOWING THE TERMINATION OF YOUR SERVICES FOR ANY REASON, SUCH FAX-TO-EMAIL NUMBER MAY BE RE-ASSIGNED IMMEDIATELY TO ANOTHER CUSTOMER, AND YOU AGREE THAT Managed.com WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR DAMAGES (INCLUDING THIRD PARTY, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE, INDIRECT, MULTIPLE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES) ARISING OUT OF ANY SUCH REASSIGNMENT, AND YOU HEREBY WAIVE ANY CLAIMS WITH RESPECT TO ANY SUCH RE-ASSIGNMENT, WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, WARRANTY, NEGLIGENCE, TORT OR OTHER GROUNDS, EVEN IF WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

YOU FURTHER UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT Managed.com MAY FROM TIME TO TIME NEED TO CHANGE THE FAX-TO-EMAIL NUMBER ASSIGNED TO YOU (WHETHER DUE TO AN AREA CODE SPLIT OR ANY OTHER REASON WHETHER OUTSIDE OR WITHIN OUR CONTROL). YOU AGREE THAT WE WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR DAMAGES (INCLUDING THIRD PARTY, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE, INDIRECT, MULTIPLE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES) ARISING OUT OF ANY SUCH CHANGE IN THE FAX-TO-EMAIL NUMBER ASSIGNED TO YOU, AND YOU HEREBY WAIVE ANY CLAIMS WITH RESPECT TO ANY SUCH CHANGE, WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, WARRANTY, NEGLIGENCE, TORT OR OTHER GROUNDS, EVEN IF WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

IN PARTICULAR, YOU AGREE THAT YOU ARE NOT AUTHORIZED TO CHARGE SERVICES PROVIDED TO YOU OR AT YOUR REQUEST TO THE FAX-TO-EMAIL NUMBER ASSIGNED TO YOU BY US AND THAT YOU WILL NOT REQUEST OR OTHERWISE CAUSE ANY THIRD-PARTY SERVICES PROVIDER TO CHARGE ANY SUCH SERVICES TO SUCH NUMBER. ANY SUCH CHARGES WILL GIVE US THE RIGHT TO IMMEDIATELY TERMINATE YOUR SERVICES WITHOUT NOTICE.

15. Indemnification.

You agree to indemnify, defend by counsel reasonably accepted by us, and protect and hold Managed.com, its affiliates and agents harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities, losses, costs, damages, expenses, including consultants' and attorneys' fees and court costs, demands, causes of action, judgments, etc., directly or indirectly, arising out of or related to the Services and this Agreement, including any violation of this Agreement by you or any other person using your account, any claim of libel, defamation, violation of rights of privacy or publicity, any loss of service by other customers, any infringement of intellectual property or other rights of any third parties, and any violation of any laws or regulations, including but not limited to any violation of any laws or regulations prohibiting transmission of unsolicited faxes.

16. Fax-to-Email Services are NOT for Resale.

Your right to use the Services is personal to you. You may be either an individual, a corporation, or business entity, but you agree not to resell the Services in anyway.

17. Miscellaneous.

Neither party shall be responsible for failure or delay of performance if caused by: an act of war, hostility, or sabotage; act of God; electrical, internet, or telecommunication outage that is not caused by the obligated party; government restrictions (including the denial or cancellation of any export or other license); or other event outside the reasonable control of the obligated party. Each party will use reasonable efforts to mitigate the effect of a force majeure event.

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding and contract between the parties and supersedes any and all prior and contemporaneous, oral or written representations, communications, understandings and agreements between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, all of which representations, communications, understandings and agreements are hereby canceled to the extent they are not specifically merged herein. The parties acknowledge and agree that neither of the parties is entering into this Agreement on the basis of any representations or promises not expressly contained herein.

This Agreement may be modified occasionally in order to reflect the dynamic nature of the Internet as well as the contracts Registration Services Provider has with Registrar, ICANN and the Registry Operator. You will be notified of such modifications if they are material to this Agreement or the Service. Your continued use of the Services after such notification will constitute your acceptance of these modifications. If you do not agree to any of such changes, your sole and exclusive remedy is to cancel your subscription to the Services and to have your domain name registration transferred to a different domain name registrar.

This agreement and all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota without regard to its conflict or choice of law provisions. Any legal action or proceeding relating to this agreement or the provision of the Services shall be brought in the state or federal courts located in Minnesota. You hereby submit to the jurisdiction of and agree that venue is proper in those courts in any such legal action or proceeding.

2. Data Processing

2.1 Scope and Roles

2.2 Details of Data Processing

The subject matter of processing of Customer Data by HostPapa is the performance of the Covered Services pursuant to the Terms of Service and product-specific agreements. HostPapa shall only Process Customer Data on behalf of and in accordance with Customer’s documented instructions for the following purposes:

If a law enforcement agency sends HostPapa a demand for Customer Data, HostPapa will attempt to redirect the law enforcement agency to request that data directly from Customer. As part of this effort, HostPapa may provide Customer's basic contact information to the law enforcement agency. If compelled to disclose Customer Data to a law enforcement agency, then HostPapa will give Customer reasonable notice of the demand to allow Customer to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy unless HostPapa is legally prohibited from doing so.

2. Using the controls available in connection with the Covered Services (including the security controls) to ensure the ongoing confidentiality, integrity, availability, and resilience of processing systems and services.

3. Using the controls available in connection with the Covered Services (including the security controls) to allow Customer to restore the availability and access to Customer Data in a timely manner in the event of a physical or technical incident (e.g., backups and routine archiving of Customer Data).
4. Taking such steps as Customer considers adequate to maintain appropriate security, protection, and deletion of Customer Data, which includes use of encryption technology to protect Customer Data from unauthorized access and measures to control access rights to Customer Data.

5. Data Subject Rights

Taking into account the nature of the Covered Services, HostPapa offers Customer certain services that Customer may elect to use to retrieve, correct, delete, or restrict use and sharing of Customer Data as described in the Covered Services. Customer may request these services as technical and organisational measures to assist it in connection with its obligations under applicable privacy laws, including its obligations relating to responding to requests from Data Subjects.

As commercially reasonable, and to the extent lawfully required or permitted, HostPapa shall promptly notify Customer if HostPapa directly receives a request from a Data Subject to exercise such rights under any applicable data privacy laws (“Data Subject Request”). In addition, where Customer’s use of the Covered Services limits its ability to address a Data Subject Request, HostPapa may, where legally permitted and appropriate and upon Customer’s specific request, provide commercially reasonable assistance in addressing the request, at Customer’s cost (if any).

6. Sub-processing

6.1 Authorized Sub-processors

Customer agrees that HostPapa may use Sub-processors to fulfil its contractual obligations under its Terms of Service and this Addendum or to provide certain services on its behalf, such as providing support services. Except as set forth in this Section or as otherwise explicitly authorized by you, HostPapa will not permit any other sub-processing activities.

6.2 Sub-processor Obligations

Where HostPapa uses any authorized Sub-processor as described in “Authorized Sub-processors”, above:

1. HostPapa will restrict the Sub-processor’s access to Customer Data only to what is necessary to maintain the Covered Services or to provide the Covered Services to Customer and any end users in accordance with the Covered Services. HostPapa will prohibit the Sub-processor from accessing Customer Data for any other purpose.

2. HostPapa will enter into a written agreement with the Sub-processor and, to the extent that the Sub-processor is performing the same data processing services that are being provided by HostPapa under this Addendum, HostPapa will impose on the Sub-processor the same contractual obligations that HostPapa has under this Addendum.
3. HostPapa will remain responsible for its compliance with the obligations of this Addendum and for any acts or omissions of the Sub-processor that cause HostPapa to breach any of HostPapa's obligations under this Addendum.

6.3 New Sub-processors

From time to time, HostPapa may engage new Sub-processors under and subject to the terms of this Addendum. Where possible, HostPapa will provide 60 days advance notice via email prior to any new Sub-processor obtaining any Customer Data. If you do not approve of a new Sub-processor, then you may terminate any Covered Services without penalty by providing, within 10 days or receipt of notice from us, written notice of termination that includes an explanation of the reasons for your non-approval. If the Covered Services are part of a bundle or bundled purchase, then any termination will apply to its entirety.

7.1 Security Incident

If HostPapa becomes aware of a Security Incident, HostPapa will without undue delay:

- Notify Customer of the Security Incident; and,

7.3 Failed Security Incidents

Customer agrees that:

- A failed Security Incident will not be subject to the terms of this Addendum. A failed Security Incident is one that results in no unauthorized access to Customer Data or to any of HostPapa's Network, equipment, or facilities storing Customer Data, and may include, without limitation, pings and other broadcast attacks on firewalls or edge servers, port scans, unsuccessful log-on attempts, denial of service attacks, packet sniffing (or other unauthorized access to traffic data that does not result in access beyond headers) or similar incidents; and,
- HostPapa's obligation to report or respond to a Security Incident under this Section is not and will not be construed as an acknowledgement by HostPapa of any fault or liability of HostPapa with respect to the Security Incident.

7.4 Communication

Notification(s) of Security Incidents, if any, will be delivered to one or more of Customer's administrators by any means HostPapa selects, including via email. It is Customer's sole responsibility to ensure Customer's administrators maintain accurate contact information on the HostPapa management console and secure transmission at all times.

8. Customer Rights

8.1 Independent Determination

Customer is responsible for reviewing the information made available by HostPapa relating to data security and its Security Standards and making an independent determination as to whether the Covered Services meets Customer's requirements and legal obligations as well as Customer's obligations under this Addendum. The information made available is intended to assist Customer in complying with Customer's obligations under applicable privacy laws, including the GDPR, in respect of data protection impact assessments and prior consultation.

8.2 Customer Audit Rights

Customer has the right to confirm HostPapa's compliance with this Addendum as applicable to the Covered Services, including specifically HostPapa's compliance with its Security Standards, by exercising a reasonable right to conduct an audit or inspection, including under the Standard Contractual Clauses if they apply, by making a specific request of HostPapa in writing to the address set forth in its Terms of Service. If HostPapa declines to follow any instruction requested by Customer regarding a properly requested and scoped audit or inspection, Customer is entitled to terminate this Addendum and the Terms of Service. If the Standard Contractual Clauses apply, nothing in this Section varies or modifies the Standard Contractual Clauses nor affects any supervisory authority's or data subject's rights under the Standard Contractual Clauses. This Section will also apply insofar as HostPapa carries out the control of Sub-processors on behalf of Customer.

9. Transfers of Personal Data

9.1 Canada-Based Processing

Except where specifically noted in the Terms of Service, Customer Data will be transferred outside the EEA and processed in Canada, where that data is regulated by the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA). Canada has been recognized by the EU as providing adequate data protection (as per article 45 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679), which allows personal information of EU residents to be freely transferred to Canada.

As HostPapa works with a number of US-based partners, we also transfer (in accordance with Article 45 of the GDPR) personal information to companies that have certified their compliance with the EU-U.S. or Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Frameworks.

9.2 Application of Standard Contractual Clauses

The Standard Contractual Clauses will apply to Customer Data that is transferred outside the EEA, either directly or via onward transfer, to any country not recognised by the European Commission as providing an adequate level of protection for personal data (as described in the GDPR). The Standard Contractual Clauses will not apply to Customer Data that is not transferred, either directly or via onward transfer, outside the EEA. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Standard Contractual Clauses will not apply where the data is transferred in accordance with a recognised compliance standard for the lawful transfer of personal data (as defined in the GDPR) outside the EEA, such as Canada's PIPEDA regulations and also the EU-US and Swiss-U.S Privacy Shield Frameworks.

10. Termination of the Addendum

12. Limitations of Liability

The liability of each party under this Addendum will be subject to the exclusions and limitations of liability set out in the Terms of Service. Customer agrees that any regulatory penalties incurred by HostPapa in relation to Customer Data that arise as a result of, or in connection with, Customer's failure to comply with its obligations under this Addendum and any applicable privacy laws will count towards and reduce HostPapa's liability under the Terms of Service as if it were liability to Customer under the Terms of Service.

13. Entire Terms of Service; Conflict

This Addendum supersedes and replaces all prior or contemporaneous representations, understandings, agreements, or communications between Customer and HostPapa, whether written or verbal, regarding the subject matter of this Addendum, including any data processing addenda entered into between HostPapa and Customer with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data. Except as amended by this Addendum, the Terms of Service will remain in full force and effect. If there is a conflict between any other agreement between the parties including the Terms of Service and this Addendum, the terms of this Addendum will control.

For the purposes of Article 26(2) of Directive 95/46/EC for the transfer of personal data to processors established in third countries which do not ensure an adequate level of data protection

The entity identified as “Customer” in the Addendum
(the “data exporter”)

and

HostPapa Inc.,

(the “data importer”)

each a “party”; together “the parties”,

HAVE AGREED on the following Contractual Clauses (the Clauses) in order to adduce adequate safeguards with respect to the protection of privacy and fundamental rights and freedoms of individuals for the transfer by the data exporter to the data importer of the personal data specified in Appendix 1.

Clause 1 - Definitions

For the purposes of the Clauses:

(a) 'personal data', 'special categories of data', 'process/processing', 'controller', 'processor', 'data subject' and 'supervisory authority' shall have the same meaning as in Directive 95/46/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 October 1995 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data;

(b) 'the data exporter' means the controller who transfers the personal data;

(c) 'the data importer' means the processor who agrees to receive from the data exporter personal data intended for processing on his behalf after the transfer in accordance with his instructions and the terms of the Clauses and who is not subject to a third country's system ensuring adequate protection within the meaning of Article 25(1) of Directive 95/46/EC;

(d) 'the sub-processor' means any processor engaged by the data importer or by any other sub-processor of the data importer who agrees to receive from the data importer or from any other sub-processor of the data importer personal data exclusively intended for processing activities to be carried out on behalf of the data exporter after the transfer in accordance with his instructions, the terms of the Clauses and the terms of the written subcontract;

(e) 'the applicable data protection law' means the legislation protecting the fundamental rights and freedoms of individuals and, in particular, their right to privacy with respect to the processing of personal data applicable to a data controller in the Member State in which the data exporter is established;

(f) 'technical and organisational security measures' means those measures aimed at protecting personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access, in particular where the processing involves the transmission of data over a network, and against all other unlawful forms of processing.

Clause 2 - Details of the transfer

The details of the transfer and in particular the special categories of personal data where applicable are specified in Appendix 1 which forms an integral part of the Clauses.

Clause 3 - Third-party beneficiary clause

1. The data subject can enforce against the data exporter this Clause, Clause 4(b) to (i), Clause 5(a) to (e), and (g) to (j), Clause 6, Clause 7(2), and Clauses 8 to 11 as third-party beneficiary.

2. The data subject can enforce against the data importer this Clause, Clause 5(a) to (e) and (g), Clause 6, Clause 7(2), and Clauses 8 to 11, in cases where the data exporter has factually disappeared or has ceased to exist in law unless any successor entity has assumed the entire legal obligations of the data exporter by contract or by operation of law, as a result of which it takes on the rights and obligations of the data exporter, in which case the data subject can enforce them against such entity.

3. The data subject can enforce against the sub-processor this Clause, Clause 5(a) to (e) and (g), Clause 6, Clause 7(2), and Clauses 8 to 11, in cases where both the data exporter and the data importer have factually disappeared or ceased to exist in law or have become insolvent, unless any successor entity has assumed the entire legal obligations of the data exporter by contract or by operation of law as a result of which it takes on the rights and obligations of the data exporter, in which case the data subject can enforce them against such entity. Such third-party liability of the sub-processor shall be limited to its own processing operations under the Clauses.

4. The parties do not object to a data subject being represented by an association or other body if the data subject so expressly wishes and if permitted by national law.

Clause 4 - Obligations of the data exporter

The data exporter agrees and warrants:

(a) that the processing, including the transfer itself, of the personal data has been and will continue to be carried out in accordance with the relevant provisions of the applicable data protection law (and, where applicable, has been notified to the relevant authorities of the Member State where the data exporter is established) and does not violate the relevant provisions of that State;

(b) that it has instructed and throughout the duration of the personal data processing services will instruct the data importer to process the personal data transferred only on the data exporter's behalf and in accordance with the applicable data protection law and the Clauses;

(c) that the data importer will provide sufficient guarantees in respect of the technical and organisational security measures specified in Appendix 2 to this contract;

(d) that after assessment of the requirements of the applicable data protection law, the security measures are appropriate to protect personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access, in particular where the processing involves the transmission of data over a network, and against all other unlawful forms of processing, and that these measures ensure a level of security appropriate to the risks presented by the processing and the nature of the data to be protected having regard to the state of the art and the cost of their implementation;

(e) that it will ensure compliance with the security measures;

(f) that, if the transfer involves special categories of data, the data subject has been informed or will be informed before, or as soon as possible after, the transfer that its data could be transmitted to a third country not providing adequate protection within the meaning of Directive 95/46/EC;

(g) to forward any notification received from the data importer or any sub-processor pursuant to Clause 5(b) and Clause 7(3) to the data protection supervisory authority if the data exporter decides to continue the transfer or to lift the suspension;

(h) to make available to the data subjects upon request a copy of the Clauses, with the exception of Appendix 2, and a summary description of the security measures, as well as a copy of any contract for sub-processing services which has to be made in accordance with the Clauses, unless the Clauses or the contract contain commercial information, in which case it may remove such commercial information;

(i) that, in the event of sub-processing, the processing activity is carried out in accordance with Clause 10 by a sub-processor providing at least the same level of protection for the personal data and the rights of data subject as the data importer under the Clauses; and

(j) that it will ensure compliance with Clause 4(a) to (i).

Clause 5 - Obligations of the data importer

Note: Mandatory requirements of the national legislation applicable to the data importer which do not go beyond what is necessary in a democratic society on the basis of one of the interests listed in Article 13(1) of Directive 95/46/EC, that is, if they constitute a necessary measure to safeguard national security, defence, public security, the prevention, investigation, detection and prosecution of criminal offences or of breaches of ethics for the regulated professions, an important economic or financial interest of the State or the protection of the data subject or the rights and freedoms of others, are not in contradiction with the standard contractual clauses. Some examples of such mandatory requirements which do not go beyond what is necessary in a democratic society are, inter alia, internationally recognised sanctions, tax-reporting requirements or anti-money-laundering reporting requirements.

The data importer agrees and warrants:

(a) to process the personal data only on behalf of the data exporter and in compliance with its instructions and the Clauses; if it cannot provide such compliance for whatever reasons, it agrees to inform promptly the data exporter of its inability to comply, in which case the data exporter is entitled to suspend the transfer of data and/or terminate the contract;

(b) that it has no reason to believe that the legislation applicable to it prevents it from fulfilling the instructions received from the data exporter and its obligations under the contract and that in the event of a change in this legislation which is likely to have a substantial adverse effect on the warranties and obligations provided by the Clauses, it will promptly notify the change to the data exporter as soon as it is aware, in which case the data exporter is entitled to suspend the transfer of data and/or terminate the contract;

(c) that it has implemented the technical and organisational security measures specified in Appendix 2 before processing the personal data transferred;

(d) that it will promptly notify the data exporter about:

(i) any legally binding request for disclosure of the personal data by a law enforcement authority unless otherwise prohibited, such as a prohibition under criminal law to preserve the confidentiality of a law enforcement investigation,

(ii) any accidental or unauthorized access, and

(iii) any request received directly from the data subjects without responding to that request, unless it has been otherwise authorized to do so;

(e) to deal promptly and properly with all inquiries from the data exporter relating to its processing of the personal data subject to the transfer and to abide by the advice of the supervisory authority with regard to the processing of the data transferred;

(f) to make available to the data subject upon request a copy of the Clauses, or any existing contract for sub-processing, unless the Clauses or contract contain commercial information, in which case it may remove such commercial information, with the exception of Appendix 2 which shall be replaced by a summary description of the security measures in those cases where the data subject is unable to obtain a copy from the data exporter;

(g) that, in the event of sub-processing, it has previously informed the data exporter and obtained its prior written consent;

(h) that the processing services by the sub-processor will be carried out in accordance with Clause 10;

(i) to send promptly a copy of any sub-processor agreement it concludes under the Clauses to the data exporter.

Clause 6 - Mediation and jurisdiction

1. The data importer agrees that if the data subject invokes against it third-party beneficiary rights and/or claims compensation for damages under the Clauses, the data importer will accept the decision of the data subject:

(a) to refer the dispute to mediation, by an independent person or, where applicable, by the supervisory authority;

(b) to refer the dispute to the exclusive jurisdiction in which the data importer is established. For clarity, all disputes must be initiated in the courts in the province of Ontario in the country of Canada.

2. The parties agree that the choice made by the data subject will not prejudice its substantive or procedural rights to seek remedies in accordance with other provisions of national or international law.

Clause 7 - Cooperation with supervisory authorities

1. The data exporter agrees to deposit a copy of this contract with the supervisory authority if it so requests or if such deposit is required under the applicable data protection law.

2. The parties agree that the supervisory authority has the right to conduct an audit of the data importer, and of any sub-processor, which has the same scope and is subject to the same conditions as would apply to an audit of the data exporter under the applicable data protection law.

3. The data importer shall promptly inform the data exporter about the existence of legislation applicable to it or any sub-processor preventing the conduct of an audit of the data importer, or any sub-processor, pursuant to paragraph 2. In such a case the data exporter shall be entitled to take the measures foreseen in Clause 5 (b).

Clause 8 - Governing Law

The Clauses shall be governed by the law of the where the data importer is established. For clarity, the governed laws of Canada and Province of Ontario.

Clause 9 - Variation of the contract

The parties undertake not to vary or modify the Clauses. This does not preclude the parties from adding clauses on business related issues where required as long as they do not contradict the Clause.

Clause 10 - Sub-processing

1. The data importer shall not subcontract any of its processing operations performed on behalf of the data exporter under the Clauses without the prior written consent of the data exporter. Where the data importer subcontracts its obligations under the Clauses, with the consent of the data exporter, it shall do so only by way of a written agreement with the sub-processor which imposes the same obligations on the sub-processor as are imposed on the data importer under the Clauses. Where the sub-processor fails to fulfil its data protection obligations under such written agreement the data importer shall remain fully liable to the data exporter for the performance of the sub-processor's obligations under such agreement.

2. The prior written contract between the data importer and the sub-processor shall also provide for a third-party beneficiary clause as laid down in Clause 3 for cases where the data subject is not able to bring the claim for compensation against the data exporter or the data importer because they have factually disappeared or have ceased to exist in law or have become insolvent and no successor entity has assumed the entire legal obligations of the data exporter or data importer by contract or by operation of law. Such third-party liability of the sub-processor shall be limited to its own processing operations under the Clauses.

3. The provisions relating to data protection aspects for sub-processing of the contract referred to in paragraph 1 shall be governed by the laws where the data importer is established. For clarity, the governing laws of Canada and the province of Ontario.

4. The data exporter shall keep a list of sub-processing agreements concluded under the Clauses and notified by the data importer pursuant to Clause 5 (j), which shall be updated at least once a year. The list shall be available to the data exporter's data protection supervisory authority.

Clause 11 - Obligation after the termination of personal data processing services

1. The parties agree that on the termination of the provision of data processing services, the data importer and the sub-processor shall, at the choice of the data exporter, return all the personal data transferred and the copies thereof to the data exporter or shall destroy all the personal data and certify to the data exporter that it has done so, unless legislation imposed upon the data importer prevents it from returning or destroying all or part of the personal data transferred. In that case, the data importer warrants that it will guarantee the confidentiality of the personal data transferred and will not actively process the personal data transferred anymore.

2. The data importer and the sub-processor warrant that upon request of the data exporter and/or of the supervisory authority, it will submit its data processing facilities for an audit of the measures referred to in paragraph 1.
